“And whoever, at the end of his life, quits his body remembering Me alone at once attains My nature. Of this there is no doubt. (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 8.5)

Lord Krishna’s nature is that He has an eternal body, that is completely beautiful, full of bliss and full of knowledge. His devotees also attain the same nature, at the end of this life.

“Though engaged in all kinds of activities, My pure devotee, under My protection, reaches the eternal and imperishable abode by My grace.” (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 18.56)

Lord Krishna’s abode is eternal, with no trace of anxiety, no old age, no disease, no death, and no bills.

“That supreme abode of Mine is not illumined by the sun or moon, nor by fire or electricity. Those who reach it never return to this material world.” (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 15.6)

“That which the Vedantists describe as unmanifest and infallible, that which is known as the supreme destination, that place from which, having attained it, one never returns – that is My supreme abode.” (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 8.21)

Everyone should aim for the Supreme Destination, the abode of Lord Krishna, Goloka Vrindavana.
