Four Vedas
 Rig Veda : 10589 verses
 Yajur Veda: >1800 verses
 Sama Veda: >1800 verses
 Atharva Veda: 5987 verses
 Over 20,176 verses

The Vedas are the oldest knowledge known to man which existed before creation (before 155.522 trillion years ago) and the oldest written documents on the planet. The Vedas constitute Dharma (religious principles) and reveal the Supreme person as Lord Krishna who has a spiritual form, and the living entities are pure spirit souls, entangled in the material world due to identifying the self as matter (bodily designations) rather than the eternal soul. The Bhagavad-Gita which was spoken 5000 years ago by the Supreme person (Lord Krishna) is the essence of all the Vedas.

108 Upanishads
 Over 4000 verses

The Upanishads are the end part of the Vedas which explain in detail the philosophic principles of the Vedas and reveal spiritual truths in depth. They give satisfactory answers to the profound questions of life: Who am I?; What is this universe?; Where do we come from?; Where do we go after this life?; How do we attain immortality, eternal freedom, perfection, eternal bliss, an eternal body, eternal peace?

Ramayan
 Over 25,000 verses

The past-times and teachings of God, Lord Ram (an incarnation of Lord Krishna). The essence of Ramayan is that there is a war and the side with Lord Ram wins over the other side with the evil person called Ravana and his followers. The same happened in the Mahabharat war. The side with Lord Krishna wins. One should learn from this and surrender unto Lord Krishna, the only savior and proven God.
