Gauranga Pr | Offerings to Bhakti Charu Swami

Notes -

- We are all drowned of feelings of lamentation of genuine vaishnava - titikshva karunika - the symptom of sadhu who has divine quality like tolerance, compassion, not being enemy of anyone,
- Ajata shatru sadhu bhushana - bhushana means ornament. Acharya explains when the devotee has pleased krsna sufficiently fighting against maya. Krsna is pleased with that devotees.
- Just like in a war fight valiantly then such successful soldiers awarded medals of victory. And such sadhu bhushanam awards such PD quality which krsna provides when krsna is pleased.
- BCSM was such a refined cultured and amazingly focused vaishnava which we can experience in our life where lcm and SP and krsna had blessed him profusely.
- BCSM said we all belong to same family that we all related to loving bondings and therefore seniors of the family should take the responsibility to correct the juniors when they make mistakes. And thank you very much for accepting intended correction with right spirit.
- BCSM has special places within iskcon in ministry of culture because there is no one who could actually represent culture better than bhakti charu maharaja.
- He would always make this point - whatever happens do not leave iskcon and GBC is an ultimate managing authority and you can show your love by how you cooperate with each other.
- Sesa pr - sometimes it is difficult to imagine which heart is filled with compassion can it also be have ferocity and bravery like lion and he says yes.
- This kind of apparent contradictory quality was resolved and harmonized in the character of bhakti charu swami maharaja
- Rvs p - one of the qualities he seen in SP is unique combination of greatness and humility and that's very difficult to bring together and one person who he saw that doing it very effortlessly was HH Bhakti Charu swami maharaja.
- Varaha purana is stated - one who glorifies, serves, worships krsna as SPOG whenever in healthy state then in a last stages due to some reason he is incapacitated then lord varaha said because that devotee so relentlessly, with so dedication and determination to serve me and remember me then I remember my devotee. And I come and take such devotee back to the abode of mine.

- Faith in following SP instruction that we feel safe under amazing dedicated leaders and in his absence we feel suddenly orphaned.
- We realized that we must not take devotees association as granted and each every devotee leading SP's movement is a precious jewel. As long as we have this jewel and these jewel are reflecting to the divine grace of SP.
- As long as these precious jewel in planet with us - let us take every moment of that vapu very very seriously and let us always remember LCM instructions - if you want to go BTG then do 2 things - chant hare krsna and never criticize vaishnavas.
- Whether you are able to understand activities or not - never ever criticize vaishnavas - because we have short span of time to perfect our life in KC and all these negatives it's not worth it.
- We feel deeply in pain of in the loss of Bcsm. But in this particular situation also makes us equally determined to diver deeper to study to each one of those which has come from the lotus lips of bcs m and see how we can apply those instructions in our own life to purify our existence and to glorify LCM's movement and share his compassion with entire world.

Thank you very much
Hare Krishna
