Topic - Love and Trust that Never Rust

Notes -

Love and trust is very important topic for anybody and anyone. One day in RKM, one big car rush car inside the temple and out of the car than weeping in front of me and rsp says, why boy said, I introduced one friend of mine to and shooting story. prabhujii said, chant hare krsna with me lets chant . and than rsp told, you got mad after loosing kc. and now he is still consciousness and chanting the holy name of krsna. Everyone is searching for love somehow and reading many things about love. reading lots of books everytime. In Bible mentions, don't chase after wealth, don't chase after eaten by moths, rusted by wind (all the commodity is rusted and changing their mind always.) before marriage 🙏👪👩👦 cuckoos are singing, flowers are falling. after marriage, lion is roaring and flowers are not falling 😊😊😊

Lord narayan is resting in ananta sese and laxmi serving narayan. she wants to please narayan selflessly. all of you think about when you mother, father, wife you see the combination of both love -anger, affection, and many more..Srla Prabhupada explain about man and women. women looks for facilities. if man has money, women comes easily. if man is atm machine all the women comes mad after man.

Srla Prabhupada - why is attraction in living body? if you are looking at fish, why there is attractiveness in the living or moving fish? why not attractive when the fish is dead? one day prabhupada was walking on the road with his disciples asked the disciples - have you watched the doll of lady and at the same time prabhupada pointed out have you looked lady walking on road? Is she attractive? why is it so? why the statue of women is not attractive than the women walking on the road? because there is lives you are attracted.

for example - you may attracted to father or mother or wife. because of the Atma or a soul. Because it's beautiful because he is the part and parcel of Krsna. therefore, krsna is beautiful person. so, we get attract to other living beings. but this material attraction is temporary. but if you want to get selfless love, we need to transform our lives to our permanent beautiful person which gives tremendous satisfaction to our heart for example - mysorepak and ladoo. if you want to taste it both, how can you know the taste same at the same time without putting it in belly? we have to put that mysorepak and ladoo in our belly, than we can taste it.

One living being and other living being cannot be happy apart from krsna. For a while, they can become happy but not permanently. We will get permanent happiness or selfless love in the service of the Lord

For example - Vadapav vala vendor in Mumbai sells vada pav. is they cared for others? No. they care for money. they will recycle oil and remake vada pav without concerning others health. But on other side, our mother will worry a lot what my son will eat? what my son is doing? will he not eat that vada pav na? all that things. in this world, selfless love can be seen only in mother and child or father and son.

Today's class will help you to deal with others in day to dayblife by understanding of spiritual love.

if you love god, you will love all - Srila Prabhupada. Because if you love the original personality who is most attractive than it's very easy to love all despite being selfishness.

Example - one time the old man and young boy was trying to get inside the bus but somehow or other old man and young man can't able to catch the bus. And, both the young and old man giving bad words to each other in mind. After sometime old man asked to young man that do you know who is ram charan sharma? young man said, yes. he is my great grand father. Old man replied, oh I am his son. young boy says, automatically out of respect that please catch the bus peacefully, I am your grand son, let me serve u. now the relationship between them becomes humble and sweet and genuine.

for example - incase your sister is not married, when your sister is married. all the relatives of her will love you and husband will start loving you. because you are having one relations with them aham bija bija pratha.. when you love sister, all your relation you loves. similarly, you love krsna. you will serve everyone.

genuine love means selfless service. many times, we feel that husband says, I love you. than husband should give everything to wife that you commit yourself to serve your wife. love implies service

For example - if dog catches your feet, how many times you will take krsnas name. but gajendra offered lotus to krsna. love is to serve others, not exploit others. In sans Fransisco temple, prabhupada initiated temple and many devotees got so many fruits alter got full. so prabhupada distributed all the fruits to devotees and all devotees got happy and that is called love from supreme Lord.

love is voluntarily, not forcefully!

when you work at company, you are not doing voluntarily but forcefully. because you are going to paid of.

as soon as Company salary is stop, your work is top. Nobody will go there without salary. when your parents comes to airport, you volunteerily takes the luggage and you never tell coolie charges.

once dwarkadeesh pr and vishaka mataji - telling to me about rendering service. they were doing services of other junior devotees to keep this bag here, we will do service. every junior devotees kept their bags down near dwarkadeesh pr and his wife. after yatra, everyone who gone up for trekking all junior devotees shouting in joy 😊😊❤️ next time that junior devotees becomes advanced, than they started feeling awkward from seva from senior devotees. they didn't give their bags. after next year, when they come again, the same junior devotees when became more advanced, they rendered service to junior devotees. this service done by heart with the devotees, not forcibly. that is real love -

While going to pune to lonavala, once businessman's vehicle got punctured and there was a dark night and no one was on the road. that time farmer was coming from his work and businessman saw him and called farmer and asked for help. And, farmer gave the shelter to businessman and he gave food to eat and accompanied well. next day, when businessman was returning from home, he was giving cash 500 rupees out of affection but farmer rejected and didn't accept that money and businessman asked do you comes to Mumbai? this is my card when you come to Mumbai, come to home, I will also provide best facilities.

in this world, volunteerily service done by heart, it's touches us. what to speak about spirituality - here prataprudra maharaj sweeping the floor in front of cart of Lord - selflessly serving the Lord - without any selfish motives, he serves Lord.

Everyone wants everything from others- I, me and mind. everyone has the bubble around us (i, me and mind) .-this is lust but love means to selflessly service prajanam pitru vasanam - they lives exactly as the father lives.

So, krsna quotes in Bhagavad Gita - the example of tree, tree gives you free mango, cow gives free milk.selflessness is seen in the spiritual world. Selflessness is originally comes from him(Krsna). love involves sacrifice -for example - when child cries than lovingly mother wakes up and changes diaper of her child.

love is not just romance, it's sacrifice. it's feel love and to beloved and always sacrifice whichever and when ever it needs.

some people says I will love you if you fulfil my expectations. but there are few types of person who loves unflinchingly. There are 5 types of person who are potentially the leaders :

1. individual player
2. team player
3. team leader

4. and the team leader who engages the weakest person in the work to come in the proper way

5. visionary leader

the greater the leader becomes, he always becomes humble.

dashrath says, you will become a king and after a while, his father said, you will not become a king, your elder brother bharat will become king. As soon as ram heard this, he had no reaction. he had voluntarily accepted this blessings from his father to go to excile. Ram told his wife sita that please ram selfless activities can he measured and we can took inspiration from Lord rama, sitadevi, laxman love means respect (valuing individuality) everyone has the unique potential. For example - if your loves music you will get glorification.

situational leadership - fast and consistent will slow our steady.

ultimately, Whatever people can do best for you. you must be happy.

love means Unconditional (in all situation) love means tolerance and forgiveness (angel like)qualities . Putna offered milk to Krsna and Krsna drink all the poison and after milk get over, completes and then krishna removed all poison and accepted only milk and gave her position as mother.

if you are brittle, bendle. it may get break. if the love is like bridge than it's easy to love others love means security(love, support, pleasure). one person loves you can give all your love, support and care and give peaceful to his mother.

Trust - When trust is there, it's like a building bridge. otherwise we will build walls if our love trust and respect is strong, you will be happy as if you are happy eternally.

thank you very much
