THE APPEARANCE OF LORD VARAHADEVA

By Kisori devi dasi

Brahma started wondering what to do and how to retrieve Earth when a small form of a boar came out of his nostril, no bigger than the top of a thumb. However, immediately the boar became gigantic, filling the whole sky.

The Vedas are the breath of the Lord and Brahma had inhaled this breath being the original student of the Vedas. Varaha appeared from Brahma's breath and is considered to be the personified Vedas.

Brahma and other great brahmanas began to discuss and consider whether this boar was the Lord. Varaha immediately confirmed this thinking with a loud roar and then a second roar to enthuse them further.

Hearing these roars, great sages from the higher planets started chanting auspiciously from the three Vedas as they could understand that it was indeed the Lord.

Then Brahma and all the sages began chanting the Hare Krishna maha mantra. Varaha roared again in pleasure hearing the chanting, thus making the devotees happy.

Varaha then entered the ocean and searched for Earth by smell as he had appeared in a hog's body. He had a luminous glance and glittering white tusks. Lord Varaha's skin, eyes, and body hair holes are all different parts of the Vedas. He is the personified form of the Vedic hymns, in particular the gayatri mantra.

After placing Earth afloat on the ocean, he turned around to fight with Hiranyaksa who had been verbally abusing Him and was desperate to fight with a worthy opponent. After a fitting battle, Varaha cut off Hiranyaksa's head with His disc.

Varahadeva's Appearance Day is on 19 February this year on a Dvadasi. Fasting is observed on the Ekadasi. 🙏

Translation

Although the great activities and transcendental qualities of the Supreme Personality of Godhead's various incarnations are wonderfully described, sometimes we are unable to understand them. Yet everything is possible for Lord Visnu. If one could count the atoms of the universe, then he could count the qualities of the Supreme Personality of Godhead. But no one can count the atoms of the universe, nor can anyone count the transcendental qualities of the Lord.

Purport

The Lords glorious activities referred to in this connection took place after His personal bodyguards Jaya and Vijaya became Daityas, having been cursed by the great sages Sanaka, Sanatana, Sanat-kumara and Sanandana. Jaya, as Hiranyaksa, had to fight with Varahadeva, and that same Varahadeva is mentioned in regard to the Raivata millennium. The fighting, however, took place during the reign of the first Manu, Svayambhuva.

Therefore according to some authorities there are two Varahas. According to others, however, Varaha appeared during the regime of Svayambhuva Manu and stayed in the water until that of Raivata Manu. Some may doubt that this could be possible, but the answer is that everything is possible. If one could count the atoms within the universe, one could count the qualities of Lord Vishnu. But the atoms of the universe are impossible for anyone to count, and similarly no one can count the transcendental qualities of the Lord.

EVERY ISKCON CENTRE MUST PLAN BIG FOR THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY

*Appeal by the 50th
Anniversary Global Office to mark the official start of worldwide celebrations*

By ISKCON 50 Global Office

The 50th anniversary year of ISKCON starts from 1st January 2016, with many historical events scheduled all over the world. The Global Office for the 50th Anniversary has requested temples all over the world to participate enthusiastically by holding local and national events that can accelerate the preaching mission of Srila Prabhupada.

“The 50th Anniversary offers a once-in-a-life time opportunity that provides us a unique chance to get the public of every country in the world to recognize Prabhupada’s achievements and the growth and contribution of his society that changed the face of the planet,” said Anuttama dasa, GBC Minister for Communications who is part of the International Executive Committee for the 50th Anniversary. “While celebrating this important milestone, we can also educate people about ISKCON and appreciate the contribution of devotees who have worked hard in the last 50 years to spread the Sankirtana movement.”

The Global Office has asked temples around the world to ‘50ise’ all their general festivals, and to arrange at least one major stand-alone event in 2016 to commemorate the 50th anniversary.

“It is the responsibility of every single ISKCON centre to celebrate and express true gratitude to Srila Prabhupada during the 50th anniversary of his remarkable journey to the West and his incorporation of ISKCON,” commented Gauri dasa, who is also a member of the International Executive Committee for the 50th. “It is thus the incumbent responsibility of every leader in ISKCON to be a champion of ISKCON 50, inspiring every heart and every temple to do wonderful things to mark the occasion.”

After the success of the events to mark Prabhupada’s Jaladuta yatra in Kolkata, Colombo, Cochin and Boston, many exciting events have been planned around the world.

“Events include a big celebration in Mumbai in February, a mega-event at the Sydney Opera House, receptions at the European Parliament in Brussels and the House of Commons in the UK, an academic conference in Harvard, 50 Padayatras by the Padayatra Ministry, interfaith meetings, youth festivals and kirtana melas,” explained Pancharatna dasa, a senior disciple of Prabhupada, who is also a member of the International Executive Committee for ISKCON 50. “The World Holy Name Week will move from October 2016 to August to mark the 50th anniversary of the very first public Harinama procession led by Prabhupada from the storefront of Matchless Gifts to Washington Square Park in New York in 1966. We expect many more events to be announced as we move into 2016.”

The Global Office will be releasing a series of posters, banners and other creatives in January. This will be followed by the release of the 50th anniversary magazine and a special film showcasing the achievements of ISKCON in the last 50 years. The Global Office is also creating a series of exhibition panels that can be used effectively during festival days to educate people about ISKCON.

“We urge every temple to visit our website to download our special posters,” said Romapada dasa, International Coordinator for the 50th Anniversary. “Every temple should form a local Committee to plan their 50th events, and appoint a devotee who will manage local communication with the media and other stakeholders. Please organise at least one major event in 2016 to commemorate the 50th Anniversary. Of course temples can organise more than one event if they have the resources.”

The Global Office has also requested all temples to ‘50ise’ their regular festivals such as Janmastami, Ratha Yatra, Gaura Purnima and Rama Navami by:

- Using the 50th anniversary logo on all invitations, press releases, literature and public messages
- Showing the 50th anniversary film, the Joy of Devotion, at every regular festival (film under production)
- Displaying the ISKCON 50 Exhibition (A0 panels that can be printed locally) in your temple premises during regular festivals
- Distributing the ISKCON 50 special magazine during regular festivals
- Staging special 50th anniversary plays such as ‘Swamiji at Sea’ the scripts for which can be downloaded from our website: www.iskcon50.org

“The 50th is the most important milestone in ISKCON that many of us may live to see,” concluded Romapada dasa. “Let’s make good use of this unique opportunity to glorify Prabhupada and to spread the Sankirtana movement. We should all start to ‘think 50 and act 50’!”

ISKCON centres are requested to write to Romapada dasa, International Coordinator, 50th anniversary at romapada@iskcon50.org and provide details of events they have planned.

LOCAL DEVOTEES GET GRAMMY NOMINATION

By Damodara Pandit dasa

Bhakti Without Borders, a charity kirtana album featuring mostly second generation ISKCON singers, has been nominated for a Grammy – the biggest music recognition award in the United States. The album features local Murwillumbah resident and New Govardhana Gurukula alumni Mallika Des Fours. Brisbane devotee youngster Ananda-Amrita Shakir also contributed a track on the CD as did Sydney favourite Carmella Gitanjali Baynie.

The album has been nominated in the Best New Age Album category, along with four other artists.

Album art of Bhakti without Borders CD.

It's only the third time a kirtana album has ever been nominated, following Jai Uttal's "Mondo Rama" in 2004, and Krishna Das "Live Ananda" in 2013 (neither won).

However it's the first time an album entirely in the Gaudiya Vaishnava tradition, featuring only traditional Sanskrit or Bengali *bhajan*s, has been nominated. Songs include Radhe Jai Jai Madhava Dayite, Namō Maha Vadanyaya, Bhaja Govindam and Jagannathastakam.

It's also the first time an ISKCON devotee has been nominated. Havi dasa won a Latin Grammy in 2010, but the prize was for a Venezuelan folk music album, and the Latin Grammys are a completely separate awards to the U.S. version.

Bhakti Without Borders is also unique in that 100% of its profits go towards helping underprivileged girls in Lord Krishna's hometown of Vrindavana, UP, India.

"I couldn't believe it when I woke up to a text saying we had been nominated," says Madi Brinkman, who came up with the idea for the album and sings on it with 11 Vaishnavi co-vocalists. "I thought I was being pranked! I had to go check for myself." Coincidentally Madi is married to Subhadra Brinkman (nee Evans) who also grew up on New Govardhana. 🙏

TEACHING IN TAIWAN

By Mandakini devi dasi

Preaching Krishna Consciousness in a largely atheistic, impersonal and demigod worshiping society who shun organised religion is a special skill. Devotees in the province of Taiwan are yielding positive results with a well- established and easily digestible approach.

The pioneers in this field have determined that success will surely reach the inner core of the population with the regular distribution of lunch boxes, spiritual books and Harinama. However, particularly by offering Hatha-yoga classes, the devotees experience a high success rate and respectful reciprocation with the people. Divya Purusha dasa also makes tangible devotional inroads in this area by offering popular courses on Astrology twice a year.

Mandakini teaches Taichung devotees how to make deity outfits. This is the first time they have been made locally.

Sunday Srimad Bhagavatam class at ISKCON Taichung. This temple is entirely managed by the women.

Several yoga classes each week take place at the largest Iskcon centre in the country, which is located in Taichung. The practice is followed by melodious call and response Hare Krishna mantra meditation. Many participants move on to more involvement in spiritual life.

Presiding Deities Sri Sri Gaura Nitai oversee a group of enthusiastic devotees in a large, well-maintained fourth floor area of an office building which includes an impressive restaurant space.

The highlight of our trip to Taiwan was the visit to the local prison to minister to the convicts. One of the devotees, Payee (who spent a month at New Govardhana one year ago) works in the hospital there dispensing medicine.

Six hundred shaven-headed, grey-clad men filed into a huge auditorium and listened intently as dynamic temple president Jahnava devi dasi expertly delivered her very wise system of preaching, 'in like a needle and out like a plough'. She was accompanied by Niranjana Maharajah and local devotees who soon had the inmates clapping and chanting.

Taiwanese devotees are most kind and welcoming and are always keen to hear philosophical discourses from overseas visitors.

Taiwan temple authorities are considering a group tour for at least 10 devotees to visit New Govardhana in the not too distant future.

We look forward to their spirited association and offer them a very warm welcome. 🙏

GURUKULA STUDENTS' PILGRIMAGE TO VRINDAVANA

By Shyam Sakhi devi dasi

On the 22 November the senior students embarked on their end of year pilgrimage to Sri Vrindavana Dham. Excited, nervous, inspired and enthused, the students entered the bus while saying good-bye to their families for two weeks.

In Vrindavana we stayed at the Melbourne house which was very conveniently located near the Krishna-Balarama temple. Each day of our stay was filled with various spiritual activities like parikramas, kirtans, temple programs, meeting various devotees and exploring the many places of the Vraja area.

On the first day we sought blessings from Gopesvar Mahadeva and Yamuna Devi in order to grant us permission to enter Vrindavana. Highlights of our pilgrimage included completing the Vrindavana parikrama, a two-hour boat ride on the river Yamuna while singing kirtana, hearing many pastimes of Krishna and our visit to the main temples of Vrindavana.

In Varshana, the highlight was visiting the secret cave of Srimati Radharani, in which She would hide when angry at Krishna. Furthermore, we had the good fortune of visiting Nandagram, under the guidance of Krishna Murari Goswami, who was born in Nandagram and studies at the ISKCON

Vrindavana Gurukula. Our highlight in Nandagram was engaging in the Braj Care project run by Bhanu-nandini devi dasi, through which we were able to meet a local independent school aimed at educating girls, and children with disabilities. Our students had an amazing experience there. They gave gifts to the students of Nandagram and had the chance to hear traditional Vrajabasi bhajanas and engage in spiritual dancing.

On our last day we went for Govardhana parikrama. The students were very enthusiastic to finish the whole parikrama, however a little bit more than half way through we were stopped by torrents of rain, thunder and lightning. Although we were sad we could not finish the parikrama, the experience of seeing Govardhana Hill so close up under such weather was worth every minute.

We ended that day with a short meeting with Sacinandana Swami and then watched a fireworks display in Vrindavana.

The day we were leaving, the students were enchanted by a new set of Pancha Tattva deities. The students collected their Deities whilst performing harinama sankirtana. The Deities new home is the Senior School classroom where They are already being worshipped on a daily basis.

The last two days of our stay in India we visited Jaipur, where we had the opportunity to see the original deities of the Gosvamis such as Radha-Govindaji and Radha-Gopinathaji. The students also met with one of the kings of Jaipur who gave them a first-class demonstration of how a royal turban is made and worn by the kings.

All in all, the two-week pilgrimage was a success! The students were happily engaged in various devotional activities while still having a lot of fun with their classmates.

We would like to wholeheartedly thank all the devotees and friends who have supported the students' trip to Vrindavana Dham.

We feel blessed to be able to facilitate such inspiring experiences for the devotee children. 🙏

SCHOOL TO WORK PROGRAM

Damodara Pandit dasa

This year the Bhaktivedanta Swami Gurukula (Hare Krishna School) began a Careers Program for the Year 9 students. The program aims to provide direction and focus for senior students as they begin the transition from school to work.

During term 4, 2015 the year 9 students had three lessons which introduced basic vocational foundations. Students were involved in discussions and presentations about the various types of vocations. The aim was to introduce a balanced vision for the students which combined spiritual wisdom with the dharmic and practical outlook needed for transitioning into responsible adult life. We had a few exemplary members of the community visit the class and present their own work-life / careers.

All students completed an online vocational inventory or careers test. The results of these tests provide a basic understanding of the types of vocation students may be inclined towards. After completing the test all students had a personal consultation with our careers adviser about their personal direction. This information is compiled for future reference and follows up when choosing vocational educational training (VET) courses, work experience and academic pathways.

The students were also guided in developing their own personal resumes. These resumes can be used by the students if they wish to seek holiday or after school work and will be expanded as students develop more skills and experience.

The year 9 class also had a careers excursion where they visited the Kingscliff TAFE. The students had a personalised tour of the TAFE during their annual open day on November 19, 2015. Especially notable was the talks in the construction workshop, the motor mechanical workshop and the IT/design classroom. The partnership with the TAFE opens a number of VET and careers options for our students. 🐟

FAMOUS IRANIAN ACTRESS VISITS NEW GOVARDHANA

By Kisori devi dasi

An internationally famous, multi-award winning Iranian actress recently visited New Govardhana along with an Australian-award winning film-maker, Faramarz-al-Kahder.

Fatemeh Motamed-Arya, one of the most significant actresses of Iranian cinema, came to Brisbane in early December to attend an award ceremony.

Fellow Iranian Faramarz, who now lives in Australia, decided to show Fatemeh the sights. He contacted his friends Mandakini devi dasi and Aravinda dasa, who are involved in the film industry, and have known Faramarz for 10 years.

Fatemeh, nicknamed Simin, along with being a famous actress, is an activist in Iran for preservation of culture and has spiritual and charitable inclinations.

She carries around in her handbag a dainty little trinket box which has a cover picture of Radha-Krsna and is broad-minded about spiritualism.

She is also very well-known in India and has rubbed shoulders with the Dalai Lama and the Iranian President.

After having a lovely prasadam meal at Mandakini and Aravinda's home, they visited New Govardhana and she was enchanted by it. Kirtana was going on inside the temple and they absorbed the peaceful atmosphere. Simin expressed a strong desire to return to New Govardhana and plans to return and rent a cabin on the farm for a few weeks.

Movies Simin has starred in include, Here Without Me, Nabat, Tales and The Blue-Veiled. 🐟

HIS HOLINESS NIRANJANA SWAMI VISITS NEW GOVARDHANA

By Damodara Pandit dasa

Few devotees in Australia know of Niranjana Swami but they did get a little taste when he visited in December.

Maharaja's main inspiration to visit was to see his good friend Mukunda Goswami, who is now recovering from surgery.

However while he was visiting New Govardhana locals were blessed by an evening chanting session and morning class. Devotees now understand why Niranjana Swami is so popular globally. His class and kirtana are very powerful, but also display a deep compassion and sweetness. 🙏
