

Once, Jaya and Vijaya, the two doorkeepers of Vaikuntha stopped the four Kumaras at the gate of Vaikuntha.

Jaya vijaya

In great anger, the four Kumaras cursed Jaya and Vijaya to fall from Vaikuntha.

Jaya and Vijaya, took birth as Hiranyaksha and Hiranyakashipu in the womb of Mother Diti.

Later, Lord Varahadeva killed Hiranyaksha.

To become immortal Hiranyakashipu practiced severe type of austerity and meditation.

He satisfied Lord Brahma and obtained the benedictions he desired.

Fearful and disturbed by Hiranyakashipu's atrocities, demigods surrendered to Lord Visnu for protection.

Hiranyakashipu tortured his son Prahlada, who was a devotee of Lord Vishnu.

To save Prahlada, Lord Narsimhadeva appeared from a pillar and fought with Hiranyakashipu.

Lord Narsimhadeva then killed Hiranyakashipu with His nails.

Jaya and Vijaya took their second birth as Ravana and Kumbhakarana.

Later, Lord Rama killed Ravana and Kumbhakarana.

Jaya and Vijaya took their third birth as Dantavakra and Shishupala.

Lord Krishna killed Dantavakra and Shishupala. Thus, after three births Jaya and Vijaya returned back to Vaikunthaloka
