“From the highest planet in the material world down to the lowest, all are places of misery wherein repeated birth and death take place. But one who attains to My abode, O son of Kunti, never takes birth again.” (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 8.16)

“And whoever, at the end of his life, quits his body remembering Me alone at once attains My nature. Of this there is no doubt.” (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 8.5)

Lord Krishna’s nature is that He has an eternal body, that is completely beautiful, full of bliss and full of knowledge. His devotees also attain the same nature, at the end of this life.

“Though engaged in all kinds of activities, My pure devotee, under My protection, reaches the eternal and imperishable abode by My grace.” (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 18.56)

Lord Krishna’s abode is eternal, with no trace of anxiety, no old age, no disease, no death, and no bills.

“That which the Vedantists describe as unmanifest and infallible, that which is known as the supreme destination, that place from which, having attained it, one never returns – that is My supreme abode.” (Lord Krishna, Bhagavad-Gita 8.21)

Everyone should aim for the Supreme Destination, the abode of Lord Krishna, Goloka Vrindavana.
